VIRTUAL SOLUTIONS VIRTUALBYGUARANT

The year 2021 was marked by virtual and hybrid events. Due to the increasing number of demands for these event formats, we presented our solutions to clients on the new website www.virtualbyguarant.com.

gCon

gCon provides convenience to speakers and participants, offers opportunities for exhibitors and sponsors, and also supports networking and is tailored to connect familiar third-party solutions.

GI VEE

GI VEE is a graphical 3D extension for handling webinars and simplifying conferences and seminars. The platform offers the possibility of your own lobby design and connection with other interactive tools.

Connected platforms

For specific purposes, we use many additional simple solutions - common video conferencing software. All platforms are compatible with gCon or GI VEE.

Corporate Events

Together with our partners, we will provide you with a virtual studio with customized branding. We organize business meetings, team building, kick-off meetings and other corporate events.

2021 OVERVIEW [8]

Modern associations deal with issues in many ways similar to companies and other organizations. The Association House takes care not only of the day-to-day running and development of professional associations, but also of supporting strategic and financial decisions, marketing, communication with members and the public, and support for the association's management.

Association House offers a quality experienced professional team. There is also its own application and software background for everyday communication with members, management and administration of membership bases and electronic elections.

Every client and every event is unique to us. We always come up with original ideas that we combine with quality and reliability.

We also transfer creativity to hybrid and virtual events. In a virtual environment, we will prepare a panel discussion, a teleconference with a visual interface, an interactive online presentation and a studio TV stream.

We make dreams a reality!

The choice of a suitable venue for a professional or social event crucially determines the success or failure and satisfaction of all involved. Venue Management is one of the services of GUARANT International. We offer operation and sales of conference and meeting facilities, including related services.

In cooperation with our partner company In Catering, we are currently cooperating with four premises.
